

SPONSORSHIP FORM TO WIN A BRIGID'S WAY SWAN

Brigid's Way Celtic Pilgrimage is a voluntary organisation. All of our daily leaders have walked this ancient path and are now volunteers in service to you, the 9-day pilgrims, and to Brigid. The type of costs that are incurred include website maintenance, promotional material, transport costs and food, plus sometimes accommodation for the Pilgrimage Leaders.

We invite you to help us raise this vital funding by buying raffle tickets to win one of two beautiful metal Brigid's Way logo swans made by pilgrim artist and blacksmith Alaina Zipp. If you can ask family and friends to also buy a €5.00 ticket using this sponsorship form that would mean a lot to us. The winners will be announced on September 1st 2023 after this year's led Pilgrimage has finished on the @brigidsway Instagram, Facebook and by email. Then we will arrange free shipping to you.

Thank you for supporting the Brigid's Way Celtic Pilgrimage. Buying a Raffle ticket/s helps in the promotion and development of Brigid's Way, including website maintenance, signage, social media and logistic costs for the many volunteers who give their time to this ancient pathway. Writing your name on one line equate to one €5.00 ticket. If you wish to by more then add your name and details to subsequent lines, thank you.
